ANZAC DAY Colour In: Wreath

On ANZAC Day, wreaths are laid down during services to commemorate the people who fought for Australia and New Zealand during times of war.

Red poppies play a significant role on ANZAC Day. They grew on battlefields after World War I, so they are considered a flower of remembrance.

'Lest We Forget' is a verse from a poem. It is a term meaning that we should always remember the people who fought for Australia. It is often written on banners which drape over the wreaths.

Draw poppies or your own flowers on the wreath to commemorate the ANZACS. Write 'Lest We Forget' in the banner.
